HIGHLIGHTS

Treasurer Report – Kevin quickly went over the June Report, noting that we brought in over $1800 from over 300 entries in our Spring Fling competition. For anyone who donated kegs to the Fermentation Celebration, please see Kevin. He also has membership cards if anyone needs one.

Membership Notes – It is time to start thinking about nominations for the Executive Board. If anyone wants to run for office or nominate someone else, elections will be held after our Annual Membership meeting in October.

Club Marijuana Policy – The policy is posted on the website. Bob went over the key points – marijuana use is not allowed at club meetings, nor should marijuana infused edibles be brought to the meetings.

Fermentation Celebration – Tim announced that we had a great turnout. 12 kegs were donated for the event and people were lining up to taste our offerings. Special thanks to Randy and Doug for their help pouring.

Summer Bash – Held last weekend despite the big storms. Kevin reported that different people came and went, and a good time was had by all. See the website for pictures of “Lake Oldridge.” Ryan and Rachel Follett were the champions of the 3rd Annual Beer Olympics; Tom B. and Hunter took 2nd place. No hot rock brew due to the fire danger, but we will reschedule for a safer time of year.

Group Brew – Next Group Brew will be August 3rd, although not sure yet who is hosting – watch the website. The September Group Brew will a fresh hop IPA at Tim’s house.

Education Session – Bryon Pyka gave a slideshow presentation and answered questions about home brewing sour beers. He brought several varieties for us to taste, and shared his recipe for Berliner Weiss.

Open Forum – No topics to discuss but a special shout out for our new social media volunteer, Rachel Follett. Thank you! Bob emphasized how important volunteers are to the success of our club.

Attendance Drawing – Larry Johnson’s name was drawn, but he was not present, so the pot will be carried over to next month’s drawing.
